

WOMEN OF VALOR THROUGHOUT THE YEARS

- 2008 Cathy M. Rolland, Founding President of ECE-RJ, Warren, NJ
"Under your guidance as the founding President of ECE-RJ, you brought us from creation to an affiliate of the URJ by taking the reigns of leadership and forging ahead with vision and stamina. Thank you for your passion, your excitement and above all for your strength! Your dedication to ECE-RJ honors us all."
- 2009 Dee Cohen, Retired Director & ECE Consultant, East Hanover, NJ
"Because of your wisdom, your insight and your patience, you have helped ECE-RJ develop and refine a set of professional By-Laws and job descriptions of which we are extremely proud. Thank you for your grace and compassion and for all that you have accomplished on our behalf AND for all you will accomplish on our behalf in the future!"
- 2010 Roanne Miller, Early Childhood Director, Sudbury, MA
"Due to your dedication and leadership, and because of your sheer determination, you took a bookkeeping system that was immature at best and transformed it into a system any organization can be proud to publish. In so doing you helped to grow the organization in accountability, confidence and stature. Thank you for your vision and persistence!"
- 2011 Nancy Bossov, RJE, Early Childhood Consultant, Cherry Hill, NJ
"Through gentle guidance, constant nudging, future thinking, the highest of standards, a passionate love of Judaism and above all an innate knowledge of our profession, you took a fledgling organization and helped it grow into a substantial professional force within our movement. Not content to stop at that great achievement, you are now forging a path toward new opportunities of recognition, benefits and professional development for the membership of ECE-RJ!"
